GRADUATES From the School of EXPERIENCE

do not hesitate to go on record as endorsing without reservation the theory of the economy of tailored clothes. When a man has once felt the full benefit of a fair trial he is unreserved in his appreciation. A fair trial is a single trial. One of our tailored suits is all that is needed in this school of experience. The beauty of material used and the individuality of workmanship is an irresistible combination. The experience is not dear—for they cost no more than the other kind.

CARDS.

Mrs. J. E. Bowen entertained at the second of a series of enjoyable bridge parties given in honor of her niece, Miss Ada May Lindop, of Dallas.

Yellow and green, was the attractive color scheme developed in the decorations with quantities of chrysanthemums and smilax. The refreshment table was most alluring with its handsome spread of Battenberg lace, and central decorations of yellow chrysanthemums and smilax.

Delightful refreshments were served, and the guests who enjoyed the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. William Cady, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dubose, Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Quebedeaux, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wimberly, Mr. and Mrs. Neeley, Dr. and Mrs. F. P. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Broadbuss, Mr. and Mrs. Winston Pettus, Miss Florence Comfort, Dr. B. P. Clutter, D. L. Murphy.

In the bridge games Miss Florence Comfort was the fortunate winner of the first prize, and William Cady secured the first prize for the men. The consolation prizes were awarded to H. W. Broadbuss and Mrs. A. L. Hawley.

Miss Frances Mayfield delightfully entertained at cards last evening complimentary to her cousin, Miss Adele Hayne, of South Carolina. Dainty refreshments were served from the small tables at the close of the games.

Mrs. A. H. Butler will entertain on next Tuesday at bridge.

A pleasant social affair of the week was the bridge party given last evening in honor of Miss Ada May Lindop, at which Miss Chloe Calhoun was the hostess.

Chrysanthemums, in pink and white, developed a most attractive color scheme in the decorations, and dainty refreshments were served from the small tables.

Three handsome prizes were given—a gold hat pin to the young woman making the highest score, and a silver pen knife as a first prize for the men. Miss Ada May Lindop received the guest prize. Those enjoying the affair were: Misses Hattie May Loret, Elizabeth Plunkett, Edith Holloway, Meddie Kelly, Jessie Mitchell, Flora Campbell, Theo Patterson, Messrs Herbert Hunter, C. L. Sirmans, Ted Bippus, Robert Hall, Birs Holman, Clint Balfour, Russell Ritchie, Abe Bargman, E. C. Prentiss, Mrs. J. E. Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. William Cady.

Mrs. W. R. Brown was the last hostess for the Friday high five club. Mrs. F. E. Hunter will entertain the club this week.

Miss Hallie Irvin was the hostess for the Wednesday Bridge club this afternoon.

The Girls' Thursday Bridge club will be entertained tomorrow at the home of Miss Pauline Spruz.

Mrs. H. T. Safford very pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon at bridge, complimentary to her guest, Miss Edythe Bailey, of Globe, Ariz. Miss Lucille Smith secured the first prize, the second went to Miss Essie Darbyshire, and Miss Bailey received the guest prize.

At the close of the games dainty refreshments were served to the guests, who were: Misses Lucille Smith, Essie Darbyshire, Mildred Connolly, Clever Chackford, Evelyn Beck, Loretta Brick, Rena Caldwell, Julia Caldwell, Allen Hague, Adine Noake, Lily McFarland, Kate Adams, Mrs. H. E. Christie, Mrs. Henry Price, Miss Mildred Nile, Miss Madge Brick.

PARTIES.

Mrs. Park Pitman very pleasantly entertained on Saturday afternoon complimentary to her children, when a large number of their little friends gathered and spent several joyous hours. Games, dancing and recitations were among the afternoon pleasures. The Pitman home was prettily decorated with pink chrysanthemums, and the table from which refreshments were served was strewn with a profusion of autumn leaves.

Miss Rebecca Rowland, of Las Vegas, is a visitor in El Paso, at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mary Hamilton, on North Florence street. She was the guest of honor at a function last Thursday afternoon, given by Mrs. W. L. Crockett, of 1907 North Campbell street.

The house looked beautiful. Many bouquets of different colored chrysanthemums filled the handsome vases. When refreshments were served Miss Rowland was assigned the place at the head of the table. Mrs. Crockett had suggested that each guest bring a remembrance for the honoree. These gifts were tied daintily with ribbon and placed beside her plate. At the bidding of the hostess, Miss Rowland proceeded to open the packages and for a short time she was in the condition of the Great African Hunter, when he heard the news of the recent election, but she was soon equal to the occasion and in a bright, happy way expressed her appreciation.

The guests enjoyed an elegant four course luncheon.

All the guests, with one exception, formerly lived in New Mexico. They were: Mrs. W. E. Robertson, Mrs. John H. McCutchen, Mrs. Nell Hale, Mrs. Mary Hamilton, Mrs. Rowland Gilchrist, Miss Rebecca Rowland and Mrs. L. C. Dempsey.

Miss Virginia German was the charming hostess who very pleasantly entertained a number of friends on Friday evening.

The house was prettily decorated with chrysanthemums, ferns and smilax. One of the attractive decorative features was the archway of ferns in which the word "Seniors" was worked over the green with yellow chrysanthemums.

The hostess was assisted in receiving and entertaining her guests by Mr. and Mrs. T. A. German and Mrs. Morris Collie.

Dancing was enjoyed, the grand march being led by Miss Eula Cobb and J. W. Curd. Dainty refreshments were served to the guests, who were: Misses Maybelle Bryan, Maud Tolmer, Elsie Shelton, Jimmie Brooks, Margarette Darbyshire, Mary Duden, Louise Sisterman, Harriet Ellis, Bura Hendricks, Annie Laurie Sullivan, Freida Rheinheimer, Katharine Harper, Marian Bowden, Frances Carr, Margaret Kinnon, Lillie Mae Clark, Flora Campbell, Eula Cobb, Mary L. Stanton, Isabel Kelly, Helen German, Messrs. Vernon Lyman, Earl Teague, Richard McElarton, Norman Morris, Vestor Lucien, Ray Campbell, Bernard Hill, Edwin Moore, Altkren Bowen, Clark Wright, Harold Kilburn, Alex Wallis, Will Mundy, Robert Hoover, Francis Collins, V. S. Rogers, J. W. Curd, B. P. Thomas, J. W. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Anthony, Mrs. J. D. Berry.

A merry party of young people motored down to Ysleta Saturday evening to an informal dance given at Valley Inn by Miss Vera Pool, complimentary to her week-end house guest, Mrs. W. D. Leland. The occasion was chaperoned by the party which included Misses Bertha, Mary, Vera and Julia Pool, Verda Chamberlain, Mildred Jarrett, Frances Mayfield and Messrs. Thomas M. Mayfield, L. O. Cowan, H. S. Cowan, R. S. Marshall, Jerry Deane, Percy Peterman, R. E. King, Ray K. Smith.

$3.50 Recipe Cures Weak Men—FREE

Send Name and Address Today—You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.

I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, failing memory and lame back, brought on by excessive, unnatural drainage, of the follicles of youth, that has cured so many worn and nervous men right in their own homes—without the slightest help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and easily, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it.

This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the best acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor failure ever put together.

I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence so that any man who is discouraged and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest acting restorative, upbuilding, SPOT TOUCHING remedy, and send it to me, and be himself a home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 4043 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid recipe in a plain ordinary envelope free of charge. A great many doctors would charge $5.00 to $50.00 for merely writing out a prescription like this—but I send it entirely free.

The terrible diseases of the eye that come from prolonged neglect and abuse, the optician cannot cure. These are the field of the eye-surgeon. But the organ's minor troubles—these are the optician's domain. And it is the minor troubles that, neglected, unchecked, become major troubles. It is a small matter—one of life's minor details—to have one's eyesight regularly tested. But what suffering it may save! It is the little things of life that eventually count, for weal or woe.

The Art of Framing Pictures--

Rules are made, only to be broken. Some pictures need to have their dominant colors repeated in the frame. With other pictures, the law of "harmonious contrast" must be observed.

The Feldman "Frame Shop" is equipped to meet any and all conditions. We have more than 500 sizes and patterns in ready made frames, and more than 500 patterns of mouldings. Many of our mouldings are in the "raw" and are toned and finished to harmonize with the picture after the frame is joined.

The foreman of the Frame Shop has been with us seven years. He likes his job, understands what kind of work we want, and, usually pleases us and our customer.

Mr. Feldman gives personal attention to this department, and inspects all work before delivery is made. Quality in material, harmonious selections and careful workmanship must be combined in every frame that bears the Feldman name.

It is impossible to have good pictures on your walls unless they are framed. El Paso dust soon ruins them otherwise. Suppose this Christmas you have a picture framed for a friend. A little finesse and you can abstract a favorite print. It will be a pleasant surprise Christmas morning with all its beauties brought out and enhanced by a Feldman frame.

Fotografos for Christmas

Absent relatives will be glad to receive at Christmas a Feldman Fotograf of you. Have it taken now, before the rush of Christmas preparations absorbs all your time. Then, too, as Dec. 25th draws nearer the days grow shorter and the light weaker.
